

History of Fashion in London & Paris

History of Fashion in London & Paris (FDES 274 / 400)

Are you interested in traveling to London, United Kingdom and Paris, France during Spring Break for an immersive academic and cultural experience? This course introduces students to the international fashion market combining classroom learning with international study. Participants will learn about the global fashion industry on campus and then travel to Paris, France and London, England during the spring break week. The course includes visits to museums, fashion design showrooms, cultural sights and presentations on the textile and apparel industry.

This course fulfills SEE Humanities, and ENG 150, 151 or 153 are prerequisites.

Program Details:

- London & Paris
- March 15-23, 2019
- Spring Semester on-campus class
- 3 credits
- $3,715
- Application and $250 non-refundable deposit due by October 15, 2018

Program Inclusions:

- Round trip international airfare and airport transfers in Europe
- Train from London to Paris and back
- Housing
- Some meals
- Excursions and cultural activities
- Health insurance

Faculty Leader:

Mr. Forest Bell
Assistant Professor, Fashion Design & Merchandising
fbell@stevenson.edu

FDES 274 / 400
History of Fashion

For more information and to apply, go to: studyabroad.stevenson.edu